In each challenging situation I strive to remember that my spouse is God’s amazing gift to me, and that God trusts me to love him/her with the same love God has for us.

What have you done for your marriage today?

“And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.” (Matthew 17:2)

Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, we should reflect Christ’s light to the world. When we receive the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Jesus, we are called to be supernatural to reflect His love, mercy and forgiveness to others. When we are grateful for all that God has given us, generosity flows through us because we are made in God’s image.

You have probably seen the blue booklets, the Catholic Devotional, at each door of church. These are sent by a generous Steward who simply wants to help us all become closer to Jesus by praying the devotions contained in these books. Everyone is invited to take one. Offering the prayers helps us reflect God’s image to those we encounter each day.
