Equality doesn't mean sameness. As men and women, we are equal but have unique talents, gifts and personalities. How do your spouse's gifts serve your family, your church, your community?
What have you done for your marriage today? www.foryourmarriage.org

"As a matter of equality, your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." (2 Corinthians 8:14)

As Stewards, we are responsible not only for our own lives, but also for the lives of those around us. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts, but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic Faith. We are the "Body of Christ." We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

Thank to our parish "sound technician" who recently installed a new microphone in church, making it much easier to hear the lector who is proclaiming the Word of God. We are grateful, Jason, that you share your gifts and talents for the good of our parish. This is just one of the many ways that we are "dependent on each other."
