Are you and your spouse compatible spenders/savers? You don't have to have the same "money personality," but be sure to keep the lines of communication open as you and your spouse consider the needs of your family.

What have you done for your marriage today? foryourmarriage.org

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." (Matthew 23:12)

Jesus gave His life to serve, not to be served. Putting other's needs before our own needs is a sign of becoming a mature disciple, of following Jesus' example. Humility is actually a sign of strength. By putting other's needs first we declare to the world that we are putting our complete trust in God. When we align our thoughts and actions with God's plan for us, the result gives us joy and peace.

Thank you to the parents who chaperoned and/or provided transportation for the kids who went to the Senior High Rally in Little Rock and to those who will help get our youth to the Junior High Rally next month. You are not only sharing your time with the kids, you are also providing a great example to your own children. You are showing that you love your Catholic Faith and that you support and encourage them in their own faith journey. You are "aligning your thoughts and actions with God's plan."
